

2020 BEST RED WINES UNDER $20

BY: JON THORSEN LAST UPDATED: DECEMBER 9, 2020

As another year comes to a close, it's time to update our annual list of The Best Red Wines Under $20!

We tasted so much great wine this year that this was probably the hardest it's ever been to choose just 10 wines. Which also means there are LOTS of great wines that didn't make this list. (Check out our other "Best Of" lists for those.)

That said, this year's list includes a combination of the absolute best tasting wines as well as those with the most extreme value. Hailing from all over the world and covering a number of different varieties and styles, there's something for everyone on our list of the best red wines under $20.

8) g3 Cabernet Sauvignon – Gorgeous

Seriously delicious Cab from Washington State!

Still just as good as ever, this is a seriously delicious wine and an amazing value in Cabernet for as low as $12.

Read the full review, see a listing of local retailers and check out our giant listing of The Best Cabernet Sauvignon.